1	3. On July 25, 2023, the parties, including Plaintiff, met and conferred by
2	videoconference regarding settlement. Due to delays caused by Plaintiff's incarceration and both
3	counsels' schedules, July 25, 2023 was the earliest practicable date on which the parties could
4	meet and confer. The parties did not reach settlement agreement on July 25, 2023, but the parties
5	agreed that a second settlement conference would be beneficial. The parties also agreed to jointly
6	request a stay of the discovery and pre-trial motions deadlines until after the second settlement
7	conference;
8	4. The parties jointly request that the Court order this case to a settlement conference to
9	take place on December 7, 2023 at 9:00 a.m. before United States Magistrate Judge Claire.
10	The parties cleared this date with Magistrate Judge Claire's Courtroom Deputy on August 4,
11	2023; and
12	5. The parties jointly request that the Court stay all pending discovery deadlines and the
13	pre-trial motions deadline until the settlement conference requested herein is complete.
